Favorite Memory/Remember When...
My favorite memory is a multitude of days, going to school with all my siblings every day. At the time, it just felt like another part of life- cramming into the car, racing to beat the bell, sharing lunch and class stories together, fighting over whoever got the front seat. I never realized how precious those moments were. Now I look back and how rare and beautiful it was to be together like that, every single day- school together, then home together. It was just our routine, something it felt like we'd always share. We'll never have that same togetherness again, and I wish I had cherished it more when I had it.

Shout Outs!

Emmanuela Izidore...
Thank you mommy and daddy for your love and support, and for the sacrifices you've made so that I could be here, doing the things that I'm doing. Thank you to my siblings for just being my siblings, and not my second parents. Thank you to my family, that all in good timing, you all gave great wisdom. Thank God that his plan and purpose still comes through at the end.

Clarissa Polynice...
To my parents, I thank God for you everyday, your constant support and love through my various phases is what got me to graduation and what held me together. To my friends, thank you for making school a place of laughter (especially Gwaishmee). And to administration, teachers, and advisors thank you for making school a comfortable place I wanted to come to. To my brother Isaiah, thank you for being the best brother I could ever ask for, I love you and am so happy I graduate with my twin. I know your future is filled with amazing things, Jeremiah 29:11 and Ecclesiastes 4:9-10. And most of all to Jesus Christ who radically saved my life, saved me from overall self-destruction, loving me, caring for me, his reliableness, and love, changed the trajectory of my life for the better. All Glory and honor to the Kings of Kings, Lord of Lords, Great counselor, Peacemaker forever and ever Amen.

Ana Carolina Silva

Congratulations Ana Carolina!
I am aware that graduating high school wasn't easy for you; you had to overcome numerous obstacles, but you did it with dedication and bravery.
You have been brave and resilient adapting to a new country, culture and school. We followed your struggle closely. Now you are harvesting the fruit of your hard work. You are a wonderful gift for us.
Ana, you are deserving of every accomplishment in the world. We are incredibly proud of you.

Da sua mãe e seu pai Cláudio.

Madelyn Fuller, Micaella Gomes-deLima & Lily Hagberg

Gwaishmee and Gianna, I wanted to thank you for all of your hard work over the past 2 years. You have not only worked hard to make these yearbooks great, you both were instrumental at mentoring the first year students in the class. Stephanie, you were great at creating the pages needed to make your yearbook amazing. You three made sure all seniors submitted what they needed for each section. Good Luck to all of you in the next part of your journey.
Madelyn, Micaella and Lilly, I can't thank you enough for the creativity you put into this yearbook. You had great ideas for the pages and made them look terrific. I look forward to working with each of you next year to make your yearbook just as spectacular.
I also wanted to thank all of you for making sure we had pictures at all of our events and the creativity of the pages.

Avon Homecoming 2024

As you prepare to turn the page on this chapter of your lives, I want to take a moment to reflect not only on your incredible journey but also on the legacy you are inheriting. Avon's history is rich and inspiring, beginning with pioneers like Moses Curtis, the first settler of this town. Over 200 years ago, Curtis envisioned a future here, carving a path with resilience and determination. Just as he set the foundation for our community, you too will shape the future, forging your own paths with courage and purpose.

This moment may feel bittersweet, as you leave behind the familiar halls, friendships, and experiences that have shaped your high school years. But remember, history also shows us that endings are not final—they are the beginning of something new and extraordinary. Just as the Renaissance followed the Middle Ages, your next chapter will be filled with discovery, creativity, and growth.

I am proud of all you have accomplished and honored to have been part of your journey. Carry forward the lessons of history, the values of this community, and the dreams you hold.

Congratulations, graduates. Your story is just beginning. Write it well.

With Panther Pride and best wishes, Mr. Ferro

Good luck! It seems like yesterday you were graduating from grade six at Butler! am so excited to hear of all the wonderful things you do.

Best Wishes, Ms. O'Brien

As you step into the world, remember that art is not just about creating beautiful things, it's about seeing the world with fresh eyes, embracing the unknown, and finding your own unique voice. As you move forward, keep that spark of creativit alive, and let it guide you through the challenges and triumphs of life. Don't be afraid to experiment, take risks, and always be curious. The canvas is now yours, go and create the masterpiece of your future.

With Love, Ms. DiChiara

Congratulations Seniors!! I want to tell you all how much I am so proud of you. This is a new chapter beginning. You are the author of that chapter! I know you all will go on to do great things in life! Thank you for being part of one of my chapters!!
- Ms. McGrath (Grade 5)

Especially the seniors who have graced the stage and worked backstage: Raise the stakes! Raise your game! Raise your voice!
- Pyne

Best of luck to you in the future. You are a great class, I can't wait to hear about all of the exciting things you achieve!
- Ms. Nilsen

May you always be happy and healthy!!
- Ms. Blackburn

You will do great things! Stay positive and make good choices! Good luck in your future endeavors!

Love, Ms. Meserve

Best wishes to the class of 2025! Stay strong, work hard, and great things will happen. Best of luck to you in your future endeavors!

Love, Mrs. Gallerani
Grade 1 Teacher

Thank you for making our years together so enjoyable. You were so often the highlight of my days. Thank you for engaging in class, making me laugh, showing your appreciation and for always helping me to have a good day. Work hard and study hard! Keep learning and always try to add value, wherever you are. You are good people. I appreciate you, and I will miss you ! I love getting emails from students letting me know how they ar doing, so drop me a line sometime:)

Love, Ms. Perriello

I'm sad to see you go but so happy that you get to start your next adventure! Congratulations, I can't wait to hear about all of the great things you do!
- Ms. Neprud

"Do not follow where the path may lead. Go, instead, where there is no path and leave a trail." (Ralph Waldo Emerson)
- Ms. Whitworth

My well wish for class of 2025
As your official "third physics teacher," I just want to say it's been an honor to teach some of you and hope you meet many more physics teachers as you continue your journey of life! May the mass times acceleration be with you!
